RAND ALKISHTAINI

Rand Alkishtaini's decorative style signature is influenced by the oriental art culture which she names the 'Modern Vintage' style; an eclectic approach where different styles and eras are mixed and blended to fit naturally. Rand focuses on integrating antiques with contemporary vibes, such as blending an oriental antique corner with pieces of pop art accessories. She also redesigns antiques such as the Samawar, (an old oriental tea kettle) into a table lamp. She has her unique touch. @randalkishtaini www.randalkishtaini.com

HANDMADEINBRIGHTON.COM

Gorgeous bespoke live-edge tables and quirky furniture created by artisans Payne-Vigour. Close liaison during the design and making process reflects each client's individuality, and items such as large ammonite fossils, antique keys or fob watches are resin-embedded to complete the story. From the smallest stool to the largest 6.5 metre banqueting table, each unique piece is hand-crafted using traditional techniques and the finest natural materials to create these industrial-rustic masterpieces.
